GEORGE R. SHINN .- A requisition from Governor Kemper upon the Governor of Missouri for the body of Geo. R. Shinn, who was indicted some time ago in the Corporation Court of this city for forging the name of W. A. Moore as endorser upon a promisory note, and who has been held under arrest in St. Louis to await the action of the authorities here, was received on Sunday morning by Depu'y Sergeant Armstrong, whom Common-wealth's Attorney Johnson had designated as agent to execute the requisition. The terms upon which the requisition was granted created some surprise to the authorities, there being inserted a condition that unless the defendant should be safely delivered here and presecuted to conviction, the agent should not be allowed any reimbursement for expenditures incurred in executing the requisition. It is understood, however, that satisfactory a surances upon this point were received by Mr. Armstrong, and that officer departed on the 9 o'clock train this morning on his mission to St. Louis. The offence the accused is charged with is alleged to have been committed long before the indiet ment against him was found by the grand jury, and it is claimed by his friends that the matter had been satisfactorily arranged with the parties most interested, and was only revived when his failure in business rendered payment of his debts impossible. They claim that the offence of forgery partakes of the nature of a private injury rather than of a public wrong, and that complain, as in this case, public justice would scarcely require that the strong arm of the law should be stretched a thousand miles away to drag back an almost friendless fugitive, whose to the gratification of a morbid thirst for the infliction of the extremopenalties of the law.

The following is an extract of the letter of Gov. Kemper accompanying the requisition: "The papers are issued with the understanding that the execution of the service under them shall be without cost to or claim against the State; but if the said Shinn shall be brought back to Virginia and shall be tried for and con-victed of the crime alleged against him in these proceedings, the Governor will consider a claim for mileage, &c., by the agent (Mr. Armstrong;) or if satisfied that the requisition was not obtained to serve any personal interest, but only for considerations of public justice, the claim will

M. E. Church.-Last night, according to previous announcement, Rev. W. C. Webb commerced a series of special services in the M. E. Church. The subject of the sermon was suggested by a passage in Jeremiah viii. 22. "Is there no balm to Glead?" At its close, the members of the church gathered around the communion rail, and consecrated themselves to the work upon which the church was about to enter. After singing, Rev. Geo. Taylor, of the Michigan Conference, addressed the congrega tion, giving some very valuable advice. This opening service was largely attended, and the interest manifested angurs well for the series of meetings to follow. To night the sermon will be preached by Rev. W. R Graham; on Tuesday and Wednesday Rev. Dr. L. F. Morgan will officiate. Thursday Rev. Geo Taylor and Friday Rev. Jos. Wheeler.

The company present enjoyed it greatly, and none who heard it would have missed the pleasure for ten times the price of admission.'

CHURCH DEDICATION .- Yesterday was a great day with the Methodists of Falls Church. The M. E. Church, which has been for some time in the course of erection, was dedicated to the worship of Almighty God. The edifice, gothic in style, occupies a commanding position, is 35 by 45 feet in size, and is elegantly furnished. Notwithstanding the threatening weather large congregations assembled morning, afternoon and night, and the services were of a highly interesting character. At eleven o'clock the Rev. Richard Norris, of Georgetown, preached from Philippians, chap. i. 21st verse, "For, to me to live is Christ." The object of the preacher was to show how Christ should enter into every part of the Christian's life. The subject took a practical shape, and was made the basis of an earnest appeal for funds to cover the indebtedness of the new church, about $1,500. Mr. Norris is certainly a master in the art of soliciting subscriptions, and in the course of the morning collected about $1,200. In the afternoon Rev. W. C. Webb, of this city, preached from Matt. xvii., 1st and 21 v. Ilis theme was the transfiguration of Christ. After a careful analy is of the passage, the preacher e fireed the lessons of the subject. This event was first the preparation of Christ for Ilis death; secondly, the solemn inauguration of Christ as the Supreme Law giver of His Church; while, finally, it sheds light upon the future life, teaching the separate existence of the soul, the glory of the resurrected, body, and the retention of personal identity after death. At the close of the sermon, as Mr. Webb had to leave for night service in his own church, Mr. Norris, again solicited subscrip tions, and realized about $200, leaving about $100 to be raised. The church was then formally dedicated by the Rev. A. J. Porter, Pr siding Elder, according to the ritual of the M. E. Church. The sermon at night was preached by the Rev. W. Smithson, of the M. E. Church, South. All the sermons seem to have been highly appreciated by the large congregations assembled. Great praise is due to the choir of the M. E Church of this city for the musical portion of the services, which they rendered,

It assists in the digestive process. acts as a coloring agent of the blood, and is essential to the evacuative function When the liver grows torpid, complete chaos ensues in the stomach and howels; the bile is injected into the circulation in large quantities, and constipation and indigestion are produced. Pains under the right shoulder blade and through the right side, headaches, vertigo, yellowness of the skin, fur-red tongue and nausea also follow. But these and other symptoms of biliousness and the disorders which accompany it are entirely removed by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, that benign rectifler of organic disturbance and remedy for physical weakness.
